ALMA MATER

We sing our praise
To thee, our Alma Mater,
In gratitude for memory's golden store,
Of friendships that
Were made in joy and sorrow
That we shall cherish now and ever more.
Friend of our youth,
We hail thee, Euclid Central,
To thee we pledge
Our faith and loyalty.
FOREWORD

This is the third year of a new age in which a decision must be arrived at; it is the Atomic Age, and the decision is that of ultimate disaster or peace among one's brothers. As we seniors come from high school, we are faced with a problem of adjusting ourselves to society. Our earnest prayer is: "Let ours be a society of good will and not a society of chaos."

— Jean Smith
OPUS DEDICATION

We, the seniors, dedicate this final year book to two teachers, Miss Edna Surrarrer, who has for ten years aided the students of Euclid Central High School to enjoy better the beautiful poems of the past and to learn words that will enable them to obtain a brighter tomorrow. And Mr. John Beck, who has not only built choirs that are imposing attributes of the memory of our auditorium, but who has familiarized us with the melodies that will live in our reveries and dreams forever.

Miss Surrarrer's and Mr. Beck's friendship and sincere interest in every student as an individual who deserves considerate regard has inspired us to do our best in high school as well as after graduation.
OPUS 1949

With this yearbook as a record of The Graduating Classes of January and June, 1949, Euclid Central will cease to be a regular high school. Proud is its record as a school. Great have been its contributions to the local community and to the State. With a faculty of men and women of high purposes and sound convictions, it has constantly brought to the young people of the community the finest achievements of our social inheritance.

As you leave the school with our best wishes and high expectations we urge you to cherish the high ideals that have been developed here and to be constantly loyal to the great purposes of life. May God bless you and give you strength for the tasks that lie ahead.

Very truly yours,

R. H. Erwine
Superintendent of Schools

FOR THE OPUS, 1949

This yearbook will be cherished by students and friends of Euclid Central for many years to come. It is, in a sense, a farewell tribute to our high school which we all honor and revere. Its pages serve as a mirror to portray the daily life which our students and faculty lived together during the past year. Our appreciation and congratulations are extended to the Opus staff and sponsor for the colorful account of Euclid Central's last year as a senior high school. The spirit of Euclid Central as reflected in this yearbook is evidence of a school loyalty which is everlasting.

Sincerely yours,

Clifford G. Owens
Principal
Miss Clara Chiara, who this year received her Doctor's degree from Ohio State University, has been Dean of Girls at Euclid Central for the past two years. Her interest in the welfare of the girls and their problems has been unending. Her experience in handling girls and her fine education have fitted her well for this position.

In Sept. of 1947 Mr. Robert Holloway became dean of Boys at Euclid Central. His past experiences in handling men, along with his college education help to equip him for this position. He did a great deal of work with them while in the Navy and has done an excellent job here at Euclid Central.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Euclid Board of Education consists of five public-spirited citizens who are elected by popular vote, and serve without benefit of salary in the interest of public welfare. Our Euclid public schools are maintained and governed locally under the able guardianship of this body. The members of the Board of Education are: John F. Davis, C. E. Bowman, Russell Glass, Loren J. Bullard, and Anton E. Strohm.

SENIOR FAREWELL POEM

It is with a nostalgic sigh
We leave Euclid Central High
And all that it does signify
The memories of the Shore-Central games,
The concerts, the plays, the dances,
The Echo, the choirs and the band,
All have immortal fame in our hearts.
For when we close the high school door
For the last time, and then, no more
The thoughts will come to us
With tears and soft flowing sounds
Of the life, the irrevocable life
Of Euclid Central High.
As through our minds we gaze
Upon those happy, those youthful days,
We long to be in that past phase.
But now, no longer is there a senior high
Except in our reminiscent soul's eye,
Our rival team and we've combined
And you'll no Euclid Central find,
At least not the Central of yesterday,
For it's gone into the past, a prosaic way.
Farewell to the friends we've met and loved,
Farewell to our classmates, "We'll meet above."
For into the world we bring our dreams
And they will come true as God deems.

SENIOR SNAPS
We'd like to take you into the year 1959. Laguna Beach, Florida, where the multi-millionaire lawyer, Al Harke, is holding a large house-party for his many friends. As we stroll down to the beach we find the fabulous Ramon Dries lolling there. As he approaches the water's edge and starts to wade in, we notice that he is wearing an expensive looking wrist watch. My friend calls out to him. He thanks us for the warning, takes off the wrist watch, puts it in a small pocket of his swimming trunks and wades off into the water.

Also enjoying the Florida sunshine we see Esther Kessler who is now running to be the first woman president of the United States. Her campaign slogan is "Ahead with Red." With Esther is her famous photographer and body guard, Anthony Ferrato.

On a near-by pier, fishing, we find Wilma Johnson trying in vain to hook her man.

Just arriving is Dolores Perat, owner of the popular "400 Club," thrilled over the success of its grand opening. Given credit for this success was head food-taster, Dick DeGenova. Among those present at the opening were Bob Ksenich, successful farmer, and Walter Jaros, Bob's private mechanic for his tractors. Wally's main job consists of keeping the tractors free from dust. As we enter the house we see Pfc. Roland Hazzard and Al Oesterle, Captain of the S.S. Washtrub, surrounded by a crowd of happy people, telling of the "lost weekend" they spent in search of some good rich milk which they hadn't had for quite some time. They searched in vain all day Friday, Saturday, and finally on Sunday they came to a large building with the sign "Creamatary" posted on the front. In front of the place there were many large, expensive looking cars. Thinking at last he had found a place to get a good drink of milk, Roland went in. A couple of hours passed and Roland didn't return. Finally a large group of people led by James Stewart, owner of the establishment, came out and drove away. Presently Roland came out all tattered and torn, bruised and shorn. When asked by Al what had happened, Roland said, "I walked in, said 'What's cookin'?' and they all jumped on me.

Speeding up to the house in his midget auto racer is Lloyd Dunlap—Oops!! missed that curve!!! Rushing to his rescue is none other than the top surgeon of the Kalberer Clinic, Walter Kalberer, and his head nurse, Stephanie Kornprobst. While coming to, Lloyd is singing, "All I Want For Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth."

Also arriving is the distinguished David Payne, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He has just appointed Mickey Schneider head mechanic of the White House Garage.

Proudly telling of her great success is Betty Lou Rohrbach, now private secretary to Richard Welling, president of the Fix-It-Yourself Shop. She has fulfilled her ambition to travel. She has to walk to work and back every day.

Approaching us is the scholarly Art Morse who is being followed closely by the prominent psychiatrist, Jean Smith. She is making careful observation of Art's case. He is the only freshman who has been in the class for ten years.

Also present is Allene Toth, the world's greatest success. She has just given Larry Swaney $100 to set himself up in business. He is now stiff competition for John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Next we see Douglas Miller, president of the E. E., who stops to chat with us a moment. With him is his private secretary, Mary Lou Stefanick, who entertains him in his spare time by singing such classics as "Marzi Dotes."

Strolling through the garden is Professor Robert O. Bailey and his brilliant lab student, Mary Ann Mavsar. (He is telling her the answers to tomorrow's test).

The conversation at the present time is about Bob Genzen and his champion athletic teams at Euclid Senior High School.

Dolores Beakel has just returned from Hollywood where she was starring in the picture said to be most likely to win the Academy Award.
Jeannette Danley has just arrived with Paul Chaney, her chief instructor, at the "Chaney Institute of Art."

Refreshments are now being served, so we must hurry along into the dining room where we see Jean Saso who has recently opened a Beauty Salon on Fifth Avenue. Such celebrities as Corinne Brown, Mary Pfaff and Virginia Hansen are seen there often. Corinne Brown, "America’s Number One Home Maker," has written an article on, "How To Be Happy Though Married.” Working as Jean’s advertising manager, we find Dick Cederlund busily handing out handbills on Broadway.

John Bann, electrical engineer, and Frank Bosco, structural engineer, are telling of their work on the new sky scraper to be located on Euclid’s Public Square.

The Euclid Clinic is now directed by a competent staff consisting of Dick Coski and Ervin Emery.

As we go out the door we see a large crowd gathering around a very distinguished looking man. Upon investigation we find that it is the one and only Carl Farcla, now Secretary of the Navy.

Once again out in the open we notice, away out in the distance on the ocean, Gerald Shelden paddling away on his home-made canoe, trying to get away from it all.

Last, but not least, is Bob Pinkawa whom we have just seen stepping into his custom-built limousine. We hear that he is now a successful manager of one of America’s outstanding office supply stores.

June Prophecy — 1949

A great reunion of the June class of 1949 is about to begin. The year is now 1959.

Marion Anderson is the first to arrive in her ’59 yellow Mercury convertible. She has just completed a tour of Florida. Anthony Arko went along for the ride as a traveling salesman, trying to sell a punch board to raffle off the High Level Bridge. Bill Long is stiff competition for Marion in his fancy red convertible.

Wanda Armour will be entertaining us with her impersonations.

Joan Baekler and Barbara Westbrook are late in arriving as they are still in search of an ambition.

Marie Baitt and Edna Smith are next to be welcomed into this happy throng. They have come, willing to give their services if needed. They are both graduate nurses from Nancy Nimmo’s School of Nursing.

Next to join us is the happy-go-lucky John Bartone. Pat Beam has been telling of her trip around the world. She doesn’t understand why she can’t go through it instead of around it. Nancy Beck will model the latest styles in women’s wear on this great occasion, her fashion designers being Eldan Caesar and Mary Cherry. It isn’t very practical as it takes two women to help carry the dress and one to wear it.

Adrienne Bennett has brought along as chaperon the elderly Mr. Dale Harper whom she is still teaching eight hours a day how to roller skate. Latest reports say that Ruth Bennington is on her way. She is in her freshman year at college. Peggy Berger just breezed by. She is chasing Joe Blatnik. It seems she heard he was in the money-making business. Chuck Boyd just came through the door. He is working on an idea for making his second million; he’s afraid that he will die a pauper. Alice Brack, Pat Healey, and Al Bradac have never gotten over the fact that they graduated from High School. They are discussing the fact when Frank Brodnik arrives after having fulfilled his ambition and made a million. He made it in Andy Bubonic’s Pool Room.

As you probably have noticed by now, our class was and is a very successful one. To prove the point is living evidence, John Callahan, who became a millionaire over night by becoming a contestant on “Truth or Consequences” and telling who Al Capone was. Master of Ceremonies, Ralph Campbell, is trying to get his sponsor, Bill Hughes, to let him quit and become a contestant. He tells us that he saw Allen Carlson driving back and forth on the Lakeland Freeway trying to find a place to turn off. Allen is now a preacher; we hope he arrives before morning.

Dick Clouser is coming up the walk and it seems as though he is finally winning an argument with Angelo Dragonette about whether Marilyn Courtot is really the world’s champion woman wrestler.

Thirty-six
Gil Conlon just passed by and it seems as though he may be enjoying himself, and so fulfill his ambition.

Beverly Crabtree has got her man and from the way things look now she is not having such an easy time of keeping him. She was seen in Rose Marie Fletcher’s Pet Shop buying a leash and harness.

Don Dallas, recently appointed Head of National Parks, is wandering around the grounds with a bouquet of Ivy Poison trying to find out what it is.

George Evans, basketball coach at Harvard is trying to explain to Ruth Ann Fletcher why she cannot attend Harvard. Bill Ferguson, new owner of the Stork Club, is complaining about paying a nickel for a coke at the pop stand.

Nancy Gerjevic is expected to be here shortly, for as soon as she heard of this great reunion she boarded a plane, at Richard Schultz’s Air Field, and flew back to the U. S. A. from India, where she has been retired since the fall of ’49.

Eleanor Germano and Florence Cole have just decided life is too tough; they would rather go back to Mr. Smith and his co-op class and hear some good jokes.

Eileen Knific is private secretary to Cornelia Zimmerman, who is making her millions by writing speeches for Allan Just, who is running for the office of Chief Engineer at the office of Jerry McVeen, contractor, who is in charge of building the new reservoir and filtration plant that is to replace the old one located at Chardon Road and St. Clair Avenue. It was recently condemned by Ray Loushin, city inspector.

Jean Jones tells me that she finally found a job. Jean works for Bryan Jones in his exclusive Florist Shop located in one of Euclid’s “Better Districts” on 200 Street. She waters the plants faithfully every day.

Polly Klisuric not only fulfilled her ambition to go to the University of Michigan, but was recently appointed Dean of Girls. Dr. Robert E. Marvar is Dean of Boys. Polly and Bob see quite a bit of Lenore Jerebek lately. She is still trying to get that certain person through college. Gene Vollmer is helping her a little.

Dolores Hochevar’s ambition certainly proved a fruitful one. She got that ’34 Ford she wanted in ’49. She is now charging the kids in the neighborhood a dime a look.

Richard Janik is enjoying life these days. His only job is that of teaching Ted Grubbs how to play chess. The other day he discovered the horrible truth. All these years he has been teaching Ted how to play checkers.

Carol Malm, elementary teacher in Euclid, says that she saw Paul Maczuga, the man with the muscle, in a concession at Euclid Beach last week.

Dolly Radio recently purchased the Cleveland Indians. She has employed Lucy Mastrostefano as her private secretary. Lucy’s job is to keep track of all the times the Indians have won the pennant and the world series. Last year made the tenth time since 1949.

Phyllis McNeilly, a successful business woman, opened a huge department store yesterday. News photographers Dave Hollis and Bill Morgan took some fine pictures (shown elsewhere) and Frank Reilly, Editor of Reilly’s Bazaar, wrote the story. In the Jewelry Department Joan Olesinski was showing the priceless pearls of Jim Potts to Barbara Zupanic, local woman of fame. Evelyn Ranker and Rose Miklus are doing super-sleuthing jobs of store detectives.

Jane Wilson has just returned from her trip around the world. With her was Mary Kay Ohnemus. On a pier in New York they saw Wilma Mersnik “seeing the world.”

We just received word that Barbara Sanders was chosen “Mrs. America of 1959,” and Jerry Noda, “Mr. America of 1959.”

Leo Troha has succeeded in fulfilling his ambition to work for one of the richest men in the world. He runs a Ford Repair Shop, with Carl Zele as chief mechanic.

Steve Palsa and John Petrenchik are successful farmers in Richmond Heights. Kathryn Roach has perfected an exterminating compound for Steve and John to use to rid their crops of unwanted company.

Mary Perme is going to dance the “Dance of Death” for us tonight to the music of Frank Sajn’s accordion. We hope she won’t take it too seriously.

Eleanor Praprotnik has taken over the part of Taloola Fene, home maker, on the Milton Berle show.

Frank Tomaric joined the Air Corps the other day and found Bob Stahre was to be his commander. Bob and Frank get along fine. Frank’s bigger than Bob!!
Bill Schultz was seen walking down the Norman Misheck Highway, (it got its name from Norman Misheck), by handsome, manly, rich Ray Stone. People say Ray has made quite a success of himself. Ray asked Bill where he was going and Bill told him he was trying to make the walk of life successfully.

Arlene Schnur and Albina Sheller are private secretaries to Dale Walker. Their only job is that of getting Dale into college. Ray Stampfel's ambition was to get through life before dying. From the way things look: so far, so good!!

In Florida at the famous Cypress Gardens, Lawrence Reiter paints pictures of Greta Verbsky, soloist in Hugh Scott's all-girl orchestra.—Naturally Hugh and Lawrence are both very happy in their work.

Ray Loushin and Bob Rath, retired business men at 25, have employed Winifred Willis to handle financial problems. They advanced Jack Sharpe enough money to open a dancing studio, so he could teach Mike Tarasco how to dance.

Oh, yes!!! The news just came that Rocco Baldassarre has just been appointed Head of the Federal Board of Education. He cannot be with us because he has to go to the initiation of Jim Egensperger who has recently been chosen truant officer for Euclid Senior High School.

Bill Gent has hired Dorothy Kokos, private secretary, to figure up just how much profit he has made by manufacturing doorknobs for gypsies so they can open the door and look into the future.

John Golinar is sitting on a bench under a nearby tree. He hasn't accomplished much since graduation. He is still trying to figure out how Joe Luzar graduated from High School.

Helen Snider is a switchboard operator with Bell Telephone Company. WSRS, Cleveland's largest station, has Alberta Sheller and John O'Neil as their only good disc jockeys.

Tom Skiff and Dan Volpe are making their millions by sleeping on beds in May Company windows. By the way, the May Company has now changed hands and is owned by the fabulous James Williamson.

Chemistry Professor, Dennis Kiehl, is telling about the time he asked his class what they considered the most outstanding contribution chemistry has made to the world. His leading student, Robert Koren, first to answer, shouted, "Blondes"!!

A few minutes ago Joan Grze who has worked her way up from the Order Department to the presidency of Bryant Heater Division, nervously asked a prominent astronomer, Dick Hochevar, whether it was possible for the atomic bomb to destroy the earth. "Suppose it does," said Dick, "it isn't as though the earth were a major planet."

Ted Hopes rented a car from Mary Frances Snyder to drive to this great reunion. When stopped by Chief of Police Norman Lewis for driving backwards, he explained that he was driving the car that way because he had rented it on a mileage basis and the speedometer didn't register in reverse.
SENIOR SNAPS

Thirty-nine
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF THE JANUARY, 1949

We, the undersigned, being of sound mind, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Robert Bailey wills to Mr. Jim Calvert another championship basketball team.
John Bann wills to Hugh Scott the ability to have one and only one girl friend.

Dolores Beakel wills to Mr. Frank Troglia a bottle of “Follow Me” perfume so that he can get back his feminine followers from Mr. Apple.

Frank Bosco wills to Mr. Al Miller a pair of sergeant’s stripes so that he can have more military authority over his gym classes.

Corinne Brown wills to Naomi Wickizer a certain fellow that goes to Shore.

Dick Cederlund wills to Mr. Blackburn a championship golf team in the near future.

Paul Chaney wills his ability to dodge Mr. Fred Vollman’s criticism, when he is in a vicious mood, to Paul Maczuga.

Richard Coski wills his abhorrence for English literature and poetry to Mr. Harold Blackburn who, after so many years in the English department, ought to give the future generation a rest.

Jeannette Danley wills to Mr. Roy Apple an elephant to help him remember things.

John Petrenchik wills to Mr. Koth many good algebra classes.
Jim Potts wills to his brother, Jack, the ability to argue with teachers and get away with it.
Eleanor Praprotnik wills Diana Pabalis a certain Collinwood star football player on the team of '47.
Dolly Radio wills her vim, vigor, and vitality to Reita Williams who'll need it if she intends to keep cheerleading.
Evelyn Ranker wills to Joan Hutton a soft seat in Home Ec so she won't get tired of sitting.
Bob Rath wills to Jim Stewart the ability to get through school.
Frank Reilly wills to Edward Ludwig Kovacich the ability to stay awake.
Lawrence Reiter wills to Mr. Vollman wishes for good luck.
Kathryn Roach wills good wishes to Jeanette Werwage.
Frank Sajn wills to anyone the ability to be a football manager for Coach Thompson and not get bawled out at least five times a week.
Barbara Sanders wills to Mr. Keay another model homeroom like his June class of 1949.
Arlene Schnur wills her locker in the chemistry hall to anyone who can stand the smell on lab days.
Dick Schultz wills to Mr. Calvert a quiet gym class.
William Schultz wills to his brother, Bud, the ability to get through school.
Hugh Scott wills to John Stricklin his ledger books so he can keep his girls in order.
Jack Sharpe wills good luck to all.
Alberta Sheller wills her ability to skip school and get caught to anyone who doesn't get caught.
Albina Sheller wills her fun in High School to the Pavlina twins, and to Fanny Gole her ability to get along with Mr. Keay.
Tom Skiff wills to Sue Town his ability to get through his senior year.
Edna Smith wills to Mr. Smith a good class for next year.
Helen Snider wills to all remaining Euclid Central girls her many abilities.
Mary Frances Snyder wills the knowledge she has gained while at Euclid Central to her sister, Dolores.
Robert Stahre wills to his sister, Gloria, his bashfulness.
Ray Stone wills his good looks to all the guys who need it.
Michael Tarasco wills his good nature to Jerry Arko.
Frank Tomaric wills to Mr. Price his kindest regards.
Leo Troha wills all his demerits to Mr. Vollman so he can use them again next year.
Greta Verbsky wills David DeGenova and all his candy bars to the remaining girls in Movie Club who get hungry.
Gene Vollmer wills to Mr. Thompson's future geometry classes a classroom with all the seats in the first row so everyone can be at the head of the class.
Dan Volpe wills to Mr. Keay a ten-pound sledge hammer so he can smash a few atoms.
Dale Walker wills to Mr. Blauh his best wishes.
Barbara Westbrook wills to Joan Jerebek a little black book to keep track of her many boy friends.
Jim Williamson wills to Mr. Blackburn a complete volume of comic books in order that his students may read in peace.
Winifred Willis wills lots of luck to the kids who will go to the new Euclid Senior High School.
Jane Wilson wills to Mr. Bailey a flashlight to catch all the kids who eat in noon movies.
Carl Zele wills his achievements at Euclid Central to those who are finding it tough.
Cornelia Zimmerman wills to Mr. Graham a self-erasing blackboard.
Barbara Zupanic wills to her brother, Louie, a pair of boxing gloves for all his fights.

MAJORETTES

With sparkling white uniforms and twirling batons, seven drum majorettes strutted across the field at every ball game this year. Faculty advisor is Dale Harper, and tutored acrobat is Gertrude Walz.

PEP BAND

No pep assembly would be complete without the Pep with the booming drums and blowing horns.

FRESHMAN CHOIR

A glance in the auditorium any morning first period reveal the Freshman Choir grouped around the grand with their director, Mr. Arthur Cartwright.

MADRIGALS

Twenty voices were selected from the Senior Choir; accompanist was Harry Hershey. They have sung at services, Tapco, Christmas parties, Contest, Gala Nite, to Medina and Strongsville, at Roosevelt School, and at High.

BOYS' CHORUS

Nothing is more appealing than a group of bays' raised in an old familiar tune, and this is especially true clid Central's Male Chorus, directed and accompanied by Beck.

KORNY KOBBS

The best imitation of the Spike Jones is the Korny which play for some of the evening events.
EUCLID CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Since 1942 the Euclid Central High School Band has maintained its standing as a first-division band in the State Contest. It was selected as the Clinic Band for the Music Educators National Convention in 1946. During the football season the band is always ready with a new routine each week. As a concert band they are seen at Gala Night, Big Night, Patrons' Concert, and Concert In Swing. The band members have placed a high number of winners in the Greater Cleveland Solo and Ensemble Contest. The efforts of each member and the director, Mr. Dale Harper, has given Euclid Central a band to be proud of. An average of eight-five public appearances each year keeps bands members very busy. The band also plays at the five Euclid Schools to acquaint the pupils with the different instruments and different types of music.
THE CHOIR

Consisting of 120 voices, the Choir is one of the largest and one of the "best." They meet in the Little Theatre first period. They have sung at the Baptist Church, Church of Epiphany, Christmas assembly, Gala Nite, Big Nite. They may go to the contest in spring.

They are now doing "Battle Hymn," "Comin' Thru the Rye," (two Waring numbers), "Hiking Song," "Calm is the Night," "Largo" (Handel's), "Skip to Ma Lou," "Shew Me Thy Way," "Lord of Hosts." "Pilgrim's Chorus, "In the Still of the Night," "Where the Blue of the Sky," and Christmas music including Waring's "Night Before Christmas."
EUCLID CENTRAL ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Dale Harper is one of the outstanding musical organizations at Euclid Central. Evening programs such as Junior and Senior Plays, Commencement, and several others are assisted by this group. Their performance in the Patrons' Concerts is enjoyed by many Euclid music lovers. The Orchestra has distinguished itself several times by taking first place in the Greater Cleveland Orchestra Contest of the Class A Group.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

With an enrollment of thirty-five members, Mr. Albert Mitchel organized the Euclid Central Junior High Band in 1942. Since then the band has doubled in size. The band gave its first concert in 1943, and now it gives two concerts a year, plays for Junior High Night, Big Night and Junior High Assemblies. The band has taken the most first places in the Greater Cleveland Contest in 1947. The members have placed high in the Cleveland Solo and Ensemble Contest also. The junior band gives experience to the members that is very valuable as this leads to a place in the Senior Band.

In the final football season at Euclid Central, the team was not strong in victory, but more important, they were strong in sportsmanship. The Euclid Central Lion eleven tackled and ran hard. Coach Thompson expressed it in these words: "They were the greenest team I have ever had, but they played hard until the final gun sounded." The team's "spark plug" was the Captain, Rocco Baldassarre. Thanks to the team for the fine spirit you have shown us in our last year at Euclid Central.

BASKETBALL

When the final season of varsity and reserve basketball came to a close in March, what the team lacked in victories, they gained in sportsmanship. Coach James Calvert's men won only two games, both from Brush, but showed well against the others. Meanwhile the reserve squad fought their way through the league, ending in a tie for second place.

The varsity rode a hard-luck wagon, losing most of their games by very few points. A sizeable crowd was present at all home games, and the interest shown in both the varsity and reserve teams was high.

Garfield was the victor in the Eastern Conference with a victory streak that stretched out over 19 scheduled games.

At the beginning of the 1949 baseball season, Coach Al Miller made the statement that he was pleased with the spirit and the size of the turnout for the team. Thirty boys, among them five lettermen, started working out in February, and built up a team.

The squad trained strenuously, and lived the part of baseball players. During the previous season the team lost only four league games, and it was expected to break even in the won-lost columns. A rigid schedule was set up, and the entire school looked forward to the big games.

With a capable pitching staff and the protection of a tight infield and outfield, the Lions nine hoped to show well against the other teams in the league.

BASEBALL

Let's cheer on for Euclid High,
Koren, Sajn, Walker and Troha, too.
Let's cheer on for our school team,
Boyd, Grubbs. Bubonic and the rest of the crew.

They're always out there fighting
And all full of steam.
They're peppy and they're scrappy.
They can beat most any team.

So cheer for our baseball squad
Always playing with all their heart,
Let's stand beside them
And cheer on from the start.

Polly Klisuric
Opening the 1949 track season with a victory march of 20 consecutive dual meets to protect, the Lion squad ran hard to build up the string. The boys, under the coaching of Dale Thompson, did well in the Arena meet, in which they had been placed back into Class "C" after the re-grouping that put them into Class "B" Competition last year.

Captain and Miller Matt D'Arcy led the "thinly clads" to many of the large relay meets, where the runners, jumpers, and weight men put out their best.

The team had five lettermen from the 1948 season, and built a substantial team out of the 25 boys who reported in January.

BADMINTON

In badminton Mary Jo Replogle, Pat Healey, and Lois Kling were class champions in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades respectively. After a playoff series, Lois Kling came out victor and school champion.

BASKETBALL

The junior class took most of the honors in basketball. There was a playoff game at a later date between a junior and senior homeroom to determine the school championship.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball was the sport most enjoyed by the seniors this year. Homerooms 104 and 105 had a playoff game to decide the championship team.

BASEBALL

The younger girls were more interested in baseball than in intramural games, which were played after school. A capacity number of girls came out for this sport.
GIRLS’ LEADERS

First Row—Nancy Beck, Janet Pegnole, Dorothy Lovar, Joida Turk, Charlotte Mower, Christine Luzar.
Third Row—Peg Reilly, Ruth Recher, Audrey Frame, Wilma Mersnik, Lois Hedky, Gerry Neff, Lois Kling, Shirley Danley, Polly Klisuric, Mary Cherry.

This year the junior high girls took a great interest in sports.

In the basketball intramurals Mr. Apple’s and Mr. Smith’s homerooms came out victorious. A hard fought playoff game was finally won by the girls of Mr. Smith’s homeroom.

As the senior high girls, the junior high girls also had a badminton playoff. Suzie Johnson captured the honors in this individual series.

Volleyball and softball were the other sports enjoyed by the girls in seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

This year the junior high girls have a chance to win letters, resembling the senior high C.A.A. emblems. One hundred points are required to earn this letter.

Another new arrangement in the junior high is student sport managers. Martha Hazzard takes care of badminton while Suzie Johnson manages basketball. Kay Moschell has the duty of managing the volleyball games, and softball is under the supervision of Doris Kling.
The Cheerleaders this year consist of a Varsity, Reserve and Freshman Squad. These students have done a great job in helping to cheer the teams and plan pep rallies for the benefit of the teams.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is a nation-wide organization honoring those students who have received recognition in leadership, service, scholarship, and character. The Euclid Central chapter is sponsored by Miss Pauline Berg, with the aid of President Ray Loushin, Vice-President John Bartone, and Secretary-Treasurer Jean Jones.

HONOR CLUBS

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the faculty supervision of Mr. Harry Koth, is the student governing body of Euclid Central. Mr. Koth, with the assistance of the officers: President, John Bartone; Vice-President, Roger Yeary; Secretary, Angelina Martucci; and Treasurer, Clark Hofmann, has done a great piece of work conducting Honor Study Halls and the Student Court.
The Girls' Leaders do a grand job of conducting gym classes. These girls are chosen for their athletic ability plus character, dependability, leadership, and sportsmanship. The Leaders also have charge of intramurals under the direction of Mrs. Betty Weber.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y, a branch of the Y.M.C.A., is sponsored by Mr. The Hi-Y Club is open to all boys from grades nine through twelve, who may apply for membership by writing a letter to the club sponsor, stating their reasons for wanting membership. The present officers are: President, Jim Egensperger; Vice-President, Ted Grubbs; Secretary, Hugh Scott; Treasurer, Angelo Dragonette.

TENTH GRADE FRIENDSHIP CLUB

ECHO

The Echo, our school paper, is sponsored by our two able faculty members Mr. Bruce Graham and Mr. Roy Apple. Editor-in-chief Barbara Westbrook and her staff have upheld the usual high standards of the paper.
VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club has done much to promote and raise money for athletics in high school. The main purpose is to develop unity, cooperation, spirit, and good fellowship among the athletes at Euclid Central. The members of the club are required to belong to a senior high varsity squad. The club chose as its officers: President, Ray Loushin; Vice-President, Chuck Boyd and Roland Hazzard; Secretary, Ralph Strohm; Treasurer, Rocco Baldassarre; Sergeant-at-Arms, Ted Crubbs; News Reporter, Frank Reilly.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association has charge of the Pep Assemblies and, with the aid of the cheerleaders, have done a marvelous job. To raise money for the purpose of sending the track team to Columbus, they have boosted the sale of pennants and such things among the students. Ted Crubbs, Rocco Baldassarre, and Ruth Recher have been chosen to guide the association in the positions of President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer respectively.
GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Membership in the G.A.A. is open to all girls from grades nine through twelve. Each girl strives to acquire 100 points, the points being given for after-school sports. This club endeavors to promote good-fellowship, unity and comradeship among the girls. President, Geraldine Neff; Secretary-Treasurer, Shirley Danley; Social Chairman, Mildred Podberger, are the able leaders of the association.

MOVIE CLUB

Mr. Bailey and members of the Movie Club have again succeeded in entertaining the students by movies shown during the lunch periods. The officers are: President, Jim Egensperger; Vice - President, Ray Stone; Secretary-Treasurer, Jean Jones.
P. A. CLUB

The P. A. Club has been a big success this year in bringing us the morning announcements. This club, plus the rest of the student body, has enjoyed the use of the new frequency modulation radio, which enables the students to receive broadcasts from not only station WBOE, but also from any Cleveland FM station. This club has as its sponsor Mr. Heinlein, who has the assistance of Chief Operator Bob Stahre, and Assistant Chief Operator Harold Wittlinger.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The Girls' League was organized in 1940 for the purpose of directing girls' activities in school. This year they have had charge of the girls' assemblies and have done a grand job in arranging assemblies which have been of interest to all the girls of the school.

On the nights of April 29, 30, the Senior Class put on an excellent performance of "My Cousin From Texas." This hilarious farce took place in the home of Beulah Scott, the Frivolous mother of Sheila, Lucille and Wilbur, a mischievous boy of nine. Sheila Scott was about to be married to Preston Rogers; she was not very excited about it because she could not erase from her mind the memory of Johnny Benton, a young man she'd known for a brief two weeks during her summer vacation. It was the day before her wedding; the Scotts were expecting a visit from "Cousin Tommy" from Texas, whom they had never seen before. When Johnny arrived at the house, he was mistaken for "Cousin Tommy" and decided to carry on the masquerade. He convinced Sheila that she was really in love with him and they had to find a way to get her marriage postponed. Their efforts to do this provided several riotous scenes; this was calmed moderately by Sheila's friend, Doris's common sense. Then Cactus Kelly, a cowboy, made his appearance. Johnny believed Cactus was the real "Cousin Tommy" and Cactus, for reasons of his own, encouraged this belief; so Johnny passed Cactus off as his twin brother, "Timmy." Just when he thought everything was going smoothly, the real "Cousin Tommy" showed up in the person of Tomasina, a beautiful young girl! Johnny, in desperation, claimed her a relation, too, telling the others they are triplets; Tommy, Timmy, and Tomasina! Added to the hilarity were the two colored characters, Peaceful, the Scotts' maid and Eshew, Johnny's valet.

JANIE

On November 19-20 the Junior Class presented the three-act comedy "Janie" from the movie and Broadway hit of the same name.

Janie had the advantage of timeliness, being laid in a town near an army camp, telling what happened when a cavalcade of exuberant young fellows in uniform met a group of high school young ladies whose parents were the worrying type.

The fun started in the Colburn household when Mrs. Lawrence, a flirtatious Southern widow, arrives for a visit with her son, Dick, stationed at the near-by camp. The doting mother, who has been continually following her son is side-tracked by a susceptible bachelor who is also a guest of the Colburns.

When Janie and Dick and a few friends got together for a little innocent fun while their parents are out, the party got out of hand. The plot is also complicated a little by Janie's seven-year-old sister, Elsbeth, an amusing child with a flair for making a nuisance of herself.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

September

8  School bells rang in order to say,
   The fall term of "48" begins today.
10  The Echo opened the first week of school,
    With a dance that pleased ev'ryone, even the fool.
14  The Y-Teen Club held a Bonfire Rally,
    To urge girls to join, without dilly-dally.

October

1  The Leaders worked hard and did their best,
   And as a result their dance was a success.
8  We lost our game to Brush, this week;
   But here's hoping our boys, a victory do seek.
15  The Homecoming Game was won with much effort;
    While Reita Williams was crowned queen, at the game against Bedford.
19  A special assembly, presented by a Broadway team,
    Was "The Taming of the Shrew" and "Midsummer Night's Dream."
29  All have been waiting for this 'No School' day,
    You see, this is N. E. O. T. A. Day.

November

3  The Eighth Graders had fun and did eat hearty;
   For on this day was their annual party.
5  The Senior A's did things up right;
   They had a great dance, which was on this night.
9  Gala Night brought out a crowd;
   The acts were great, applause was loud.
12  The Senior High Dance was really smooth;
    The band was surely in the groove.
19 & 20  The Junior class had a very good play,
   The name was "Janie"; it was really gay.
23  The Freshmen, as usual, had a grand time,
   At their annual party, which turned out very fine.
24  The "Concert in Swing" by our first place band,
   Has become a regular feature, it really is grand.
25  Everyone did eat of turkey and dressing.
   School closed two days; Oh! what a blessing.

December

4  The Opus Dance was a grand success;
   The trio was good, everyone did confess.
16  The Patron's Concert, the first of the year,
   Played good music, which we like to hear.
18  The Friendship Formal was said by all
   To have been a great success, just like a Ball.
30  While the alumni, for winning, were shouting with joy,
    To Mr. and Mrs. Koth, was born a darling baby boy.

January

3  Christmas vacation gave us a rest;
   Now we're back in school to do our best.
6 & 7  The pictures taken came out very well;
   Of course, they are for the Opus; swell!
15  The Snowball Dance was a great success;
   Being sponsored by the Echo, what else can we expect.
18  The Senior Banquet, all confessed;
   Being held at Rondini's, was a great success.
21  Senior Day Assembly, a variety show,
   Thrilled all students, we really know.
23  Baccalaureate Service on Sunday P. M.,
   A message to the class, followed by a hymn.
25  Seniors all, on Commencement Night,
   Marched down the aisle in maroon and white.
28  The first semester of school came to an end;
   A change of classes, and teachers, and maybe a new friend
February
10 The Tune Mixers and Howie Lund,
    Entertained the students, so that all had fun.
12 A night in Heaven was spent by all,
    At the Senior High dance, whether short or tall.
15 The Second Patron’s Concert of the year
    Brought us music pleasing to the ear.
22 Washington’s birthday again is here;
    No school today, all gave a cheer.

March
4 & 5 The Basketball Tournament again is here;
11 & 12 Let’s all go and give our boys a cheer.
16 The Opus presented to the school with much glee, the movie entitled: “You Were Meant For Me.”
18 Junior High Night went off with a bang;
    As we see not all the talent is in the Sr. High gang.
25 The Senior High Dance was a real success;
    All that were there agreed it was the best.
29 Big Nite really came out with the best;
    A talented school we have, as you have already guessed.

April
4-8 Vocational Guidance Week is here again;
    Advice about careers we hope to gain.
11 Spring is here; we’re all in a daze:
    The School Board has given us a week to just laze.
21 The Band Festival has been here and gone,
    Everyone hopes for another before long.
22 The Sophomores did at times have fun,
    Especially at their party, from which no one did run.
27 The Y-Teen Party for girls was great;
    This goes to show “who needs a date”?
29 & 30 The Seniors produced a very good play
    “My Cousin from Texas” really brightened the day.

May
6 The Third Patron’s Concert was heard by all;
    Its praises were shouted from hall to hall.
21 Everyone had fun it must be agreed;
    For the Prom this year was at Manakiki.

June
2 All of our seniors one hundred twelve and four,
    Were pleased with their banquet at the Country Club on Lake Shore.
3 Senior Day was quite the day,
    As everyone had his own sweet way.
5 Baccalaureate Service was attended by all,
    The message was directed to everyone, whether short or tall.
9 Commencement night is here at last,
    And every Senior wishes he had not passed.
10 This is the day toward which we all strive;
    The last day of school did finally arrive.
